COMMENTS ON STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR NOTICE OF ALLOWANCE

Applicant notes with appreciation the Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance. Applicant does not take issue with the Examiner's Statement except to the extent that it might be read to imply the Examiner has stated all reasons for allowance. The record should be clear that the Examiner has stated a sufficient reason for allowance of each of the independent claims 1, 58 and 95, and in the papers mailed July 10, 2003 and February 13, 2004 with respect to claims 95, 96 and 112-121. The Examiner's Statements should not be taken to suggest that he found in the prior art any other teachings or suggestions with respect to the claimed limitations. Thus, we believe the Examiner has indicated non-exhaustive reasons for allowance. Consequently, Applicant does not acquiesce in any claims being construed only in accordance with the particular statements made by the Examiner.

Respectfully submitted,
